

Adventure Kit

for "The Cloud That Wanted to Stay"

A quiet invitation to wonder — for little ones and their grown-ups

Colour the cloud, the garden, and the rain — and imagine what it feels like to find a place where you belong

Lie on the grass and look up at the sky. Find a cloud that looks like something you recognise — an animal, a boat, a flower. Draw it below, or describe it in words

A Question to Wonder About

- If you were a cloud, where would you want to stay?
 - Write or draw your answer below

I choose to stay where I am loved

Name: _____

Date: _____

To stay is not to stop — it is to root yourself in what you love.

For Grown-ups

- This Adventure Kit is a quiet invitation to notice belonging — not as a destination, but as a choice. You do not need a garden or a sky to do these activities. A window, a blanket, and a few moments of stillness are enough. Let the child lead, and let the cloud teach us that staying can be as brave as moving.
